- 1.—Grant to Company of exclusive right to supply electricity.
- 2.—Reservation of rights of Nova Scotia S. & C. Co., Ltd. and Dominion I. & S. Co. Ltd.
- 3.—Reservation of rights of Bell Island Transportation Co. Ltd.
- 4.—Reservation of rights of Nfld. L. & P. Co. Ltd. and United Towns Elec. Co. Ltd. and Conception Bay E. Co. Ltd. and Public Service E. Co. Ltd.

SECTION—

- 5.—Power to purchase franchise after 15 years.
- 6.—Right of Company to appropriate lands.
Proviso.
- 7.—Respecting arbitration.
- 8.—Exemption from payment of duties.
- 9.—Cessation of franchise in case of default.
- 10.—Rates subject to approval of Governor-in-Council.
- 11.—Repeal,

WHEREAS the Wabana Light and Power Company, Limited, incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1899 to 1908, has power under its Memorandum of Association to carry on the business of supplying electricity for commercial purposes;

AND WHEREAS the said Wabana Light and Power Company, Limited, hereinafter called "the Company," has by its Petition prayed for an Act vesting in the Company certain privileges, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the Petitioners to the extent hereinafter provided;

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Grant to Company of exclusive right to supply electricity.

1. The Company is hereby granted the exclusive right and franchise (except as hereinafter excepted) for the term of twenty years from the date of the passing of this Act to supply electricity on a retail basis only for lighting, heating and power purposes on Bell Island, and all such incidental rights, franchises and privileges as may be necessary for the effective exercise of the said right and franchise, including in particular the right (but not the exclusive right) to open all or any public highways and lands on Bell Island and lay and maintain therein electric conduits and cables and insert and maintain therein poles for supporting electric wires, and to support such electric wires by such poles, and to cross such highways and lands with such conduits, cables and wires: Provided that no overhead wires shall be carried less than twenty feet above the ground level.

Reservation of rights of Nova Scotia S. & C. Co. Ltd and Dominion I. & S. Co. Ltd.

2. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as limiting the right of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, or of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Limited, or of the assignees of a mine of either of the said Companies, or of any other mining Company operating on Bell Island to supply electricity for lighting, heating or power purposes, to or upon any buildings or premises owned or leased by either of the said Companies or their Assignees as aforesaid, including their tramways or otherwise for the purposes of their own works.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as affecting or limiting the rights of the Bell Island Transportation Company, Limited.

Reservation of
rights of Bell
Is. Transportation Co. Ltd.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as affecting or limiting any existing rights of the Newfoundland Light and Power Company, Limited, or the United Towns Electric Company, Limited, or the Conception Bay Electric Company, Limited, or the Public Service Electric Company, Limited, or shall prevent any of them in any case from supplying electricity on a wholesale basis in average blocks of not less than 10,000 kilowatt hours per month.

Reservation of
rights of Nfld
L. & P. Co.
Ltd. and United Towns Elec.
Co. Ltd. and Conception
Bay E. Co.
Ltd. and Public Service E.
Co. Ltd.

5. (1) The Government or other public authority having charge of the local affairs of Bell Island may at any time after the expiration of fifteen years from the date of the passing of this Act, purchase the rights and franchises of the Company as a going concern, upon giving to the Company twelve months' previous notice of its intention so to do.

Power to purchase franchise
after 15 years.

(2) In case of any such purchase, the price to be paid for the rights and franchises of the Company shall be determined by arbitration as provided in the seventh section of this Act.

(3) The right of pre-emption hereby reserved shall extend only to the business of the Company as a supplier of electricity and not to any other business or businesses in which it may be engaged.

Right of Co. to appropriate lands.

6. If the Company finds it necessary for the efficient construction, maintenance and operation of its works, or for any purpose connected therewith, it may with the sanction of the Governor-in-Council enter upon and assume possession of and appropriate for any of the purposes mentioned in this Section any lands belonging to any persons or corporations except as hereinafter provided that may be necessary for the opening, construction, maintenance or operation of all or any of its works, or for the erection of any buildings or structures requisite for maintaining or operating the same, and may enter upon and remove from such lands any houses or buildings and other obstructions which may be thereon:

Proviso

Provided, however, that the rights by this Section granted to the Company shall not extend to lands held by any of the Companies mentioned in Sections two, three and four of this Act for the purposes of the operations conducted by such Companies at Bell Island respectively, or held by any of their respective assigns for the like purposes. The damage, if any, occasioned to any person or corporation whose interest in any lands or tenements may be affected by the exercise of the Company of the rights granted by this Section shall be determined by arbitration as provided in the seventh Section of this Act.

Respecting
arbitration.

7. In every Arbitration under this Act each party shall appoint one Arbitrator, and the two so appointed shall appoint a third or Umpire. If either party to the reference fails to appoint an Arbitrator after seven clear days' notice so to do, the other party may apply to the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, who shall after due notice to the party in default, appoint such Arbitrator. If the Arbitrators fail to appoint an umpire after seven clear days, the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof shall on the application of either party appoint such umpire. The award of the Arbitrators, or, if they disagree, of the umpire, shall be final and binding on both parties.

8. All transformers, machinery, outside transmission wire, insulators and accesories for outside transmission lines necessary for the original construction of the Company's electric system and extensions thereof during the period of twenty years, but not in substitution for old, shall be admitted into the Colony free of duty. Exemption from payment of duties.

9. If at any time the Company shall be unable or shall fail for two consecutive months to supply electric current sufficient for the reasonable needs of the population of Bell Island, it shall be lawful for the Governor-in-Council on the application of any Company or person who shall then and there be able and willing to supply such needs to declare this Act no longer operative and upon such declaration the franchises hereby conferred shall cease and determine. Cessation of franchise in case of default.

10. The rates to be charged by the Company to consumers for electric current shall be subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council. Rates subject to approval of Governor-in-Council.

11. The Bell Island (Electric Service) Act, 1919, is hereby repealed. Repeal.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

- |                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| Short title.    | 1. This Act may be cited as the Optometry Act, 1928.   |
| Interpretation. | 2. In this Act:—   |
|                 | (a) “The Board” means the Newfoundland Optometrical Board.   |
|                 | (b) “Regulations” shall mean regulations made under the authority of this Act.   |
|                 | (c) “Optometry” means the employment of any means other than the use of drugs, medicines and surgery for the measurement of the powers of vision and the adaptation of lenses, |

and prisms for the correction and aid of the vision of human beings.

(d) "Optometrist" means any person who by any means, other than the use of drugs, medicine or surgery, measures, or attempts to measure, the refractive or muscular condition of the eye, or prescribes, or attempts to prescribe, any lens or lenses, or fits spectacles or eye glasses to any other person, for the relief or correction of any visual or muscular error.

(e) "Optician" means any person who supplies ophthalmic lenses, spectacles, eyeglass mountings, etc., in accordance with the prescription of an optometrical or medical practitioner, or by duplication, and any person who is engaged in the manufacture of ophthalmic lenses, frames, mountings or parts thereof.

3. There shall be a Board to be known as "The Newfoundland Optometrical Board" which shall consist of not more than five duly qualified and practising optometrists appointed by the Governor in Council, of whom three shall form a quorum, and which shall have an official seal. The said Board shall be appointed immediately after the passing of this Act and thereafter every three years and members thereof shall be eligible for re-appointment at the end of each period.

Respecting the Nfld. Optometrical Board.

4. The Board shall have power to make by-laws not inconsistent with this Chapter respecting

Power of Board to make by-laws.

(1) The holding and conduct of examinations of candidates for registration and the granting of certificates.

(2) The registration of members.

(3) The fees payable for registration, certificates and examinations under this Chapter, said fees not to exceed twenty dollars.

(a) The Board may make such further by-laws subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council as they may deem necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Chapter.

(4) The annual fee for renewal not exceeding ten dollars.

Persons entitled to be registered.

5. Persons resident in this Colony and who hold a bona fide diploma from any generally recognized College of Optometry and who have practised optometry in this Colony for the period of three years next before the passing of this Act shall upon payment of the fees provided by this Act and the By-laws be entitled to be registered under this Act and shall receive from the Board certificates of such registration.

Annual meeting of Board.

6. There shall be an annual general meeting of the Board held in the city of St. John's, or at such other place in Newfoundland as shall be determined by the Board, on the second Wednesday in January in each year, for the transaction of such business as may be required.

Officers to be elected by ballot.

7. At such annual general meeting of which all members shall be duly notified one month in advance, there shall be elected by ballot a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer, who shall constitute the executive of the Board.

(a) The duties usually assigned to such executive officers as President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer shall be assigned to such Officers of this Board.

8. The Board shall provide a Register which shall be kept by the Secretary-Treasurer and in which shall be entered the name, address and qualification of every person registered as an optometrist in Newfoundland and which shall be published every year in the month of January in the Newfoundland Gazette. <sup>Register of optometrists.</sup>

9. Every person duly registered under the terms of this Act shall be entitled upon registration to a Certificate signed by the Secretary-Treasurer and sealed with the Seal of the Board. This certificate shall be renewed or some addition made to the original certificate each year to show that the person is still in good standing on the books of the Board. <sup>Certificate of registration.</sup>

10. Every person shall upon his registration and thereafter on or before the first day of February in each year pay to the Secretary-Treasurer such fees as the Board may by by-law determine. Any person failing to make any such payment shall be liable to forfeit his place upon the register but his name may be replaced at the discretion of the Board on payment of such arrears of fees as the Board may determine. <sup>Fees.</sup>

11. Every person who after the coming into force of this Act files with the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board an application, verified by oath, or by statutory declaration, stating therein that the applicant is of the full age of twenty-one years, is of good moral character, and possesses the qualifications as to general education, training and experience prescribed by the Regulations, may be admitted to examination by the Board as to his qualifications as an optometrist, and upon passing such examination and paying the required fees, shall be registered by the Board as possessing the qualifications required by this <sup>Admission of persons after examination.</sup>

Act, and shall receive from the Board a Certificate of such registration.

Revocation of certificate in certain cases.

12. Where the Board is satisfied that any optometrist has been guilty of illegal practices, incompetency, inebriety, fraud or misrepresentation, the Board may prohibit such person from practising or carrying on business as an optometrist, and may revoke any certificate granted to him, but before the issue of prohibition or the revocation of such Certificate, the person charged shall be given notice in writing of the charge or charges against him and shall have an opportunity of being heard and of producing testimony on his own behalf.

Reinstatement.

13. Where a prohibition has been issued or a Certificate has been revoked, the person charged may, after ninety days, apply to the Board to have the prohibition removed or the certificate re-granted and the Board may remove the prohibition or re-grant the Certificate upon the payment of such fees as may be fixed by the Regulations.

Penalties.

14. Every person, not being the holder of a Certificate under this Act, who:—

- (a) Engages in the practice of optometry or appends to his name the term "Optometrist" or "Optician" or any abbreviation thereof, or wilfully and falsely pretends to be or wilfully or falsely takes or uses any name, title, addition, abbreviation or description implying or calculated to lead people to believe that he is or is registered by law as an Optometrist or Optician or that he is registered or possesses a Certificate under this Act:
- (b) Or having been prohibited from carrying on business as an Optometrist or Optician, disobeys such prohibition, or who shall make in any manner a test or examination of the eye or eyes of another to ascertain the refractive or muscular condition thereof; or who shall adapt lenses to the human eye for any purpose, either directly or indirectly;

- (c) Or sells, or fits, or supplies glasses by going from house to house, or from place to place or operates from any but a fixed place of business (and notwithstanding that he is the holder of a municipal license as a peddler or transient trader); shall be guilty of an offence, and shall upon summary conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a penalty of not less than twenty, nor more than one hundred dollars, or in default of payment imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months;
- (d) Nothing herein shall prevent the selling of spectacles or eye-glasses as merchandise in any fixed shop or store, provided that the proprietor or keeper of the shop or store or any servant or agent of the proprietor or keeper shall not test the eyes of any person or profess any skill or competency in relation thereto unless he is a Certificated person.

15. No person practising optometry in this Colony or doing any of the matters set forth in Section 14 hereof in violation of this Act shall recover any charges in respect thereof or the price or purchase-money of any glasses or lenses sold in any Court of Law or Equity. Optometrists not to recover fees in certain cases.

16. Any person whose name is registered who shall be convicted in any Court of Justice either in this Colony or elsewhere of any indictable offence involving moral Forfeiture in certain cases.

turpitude in the opinion of the Board shall forfeit his place upon the register.

Respecting
unprofessional practices.

17. If any person whose name is registered shall use unprofessional means to acquire, extend or retain practice as an optometrist he may be convicted thereof by a majority of the members of the Board present at any regular meeting thereof, provided that no person shall be so convicted unless ten days' notice in writing served either on him personally or on some adult inmate of his usual place of abode or adult employee at his place of business shall have been given him of the charge and the time and place of hearing and after he shall have been allowed full opportunity to be heard in his defence.

(a) If any person be convicted hereunder, he shall thereupon forfeit any office he may hold in or under the Board and his name shall thereupon be stricken off the Register, and no person so convicted shall within three years after such conviction be eligible for registration.

(b) The Board shall by by-laws declare what conduct shall be deemed unprofessional.

Registration of persons certified abroad.

18. Any person who shall present to the Board a certified copy or certificate of registration or license which was issued to him after examination by a Board of Registration in Optometry in Great Britain or in any Province of Canada or in any State of the United States of America, where the requirements for registration shall be deemed by the Board to be equivalent to those of this Board, may be registered and given a certificate of registration in this Colony without examination, on proof of good character and standing, provided that such country, province or state accords a like privilege to this Board, and to holders of certificates of registration in this Colony, and provided that the applicant has not previously failed to pass the examination required in this Colony.

19. Any penalty imposed by this Act may be recovered by proceedings before a Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace. One half of any penalty recovered under this Act shall be paid to the Minister of Finance for the use of the Colony and the other half of such penalty to the Board.

20. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to legally qualified medical practitioners registered under the Newfoundland Medical Act.

Recovery of penalties.

Act not to apply to medical practitioners.

CAP. III.

An Act to Amend 143 of The Consolidated Statutes (Third Series) Entitled "Of the Keeping of Dogs."

(Passed June 13, 1928).

SECTION—
1.—Repeal.

SECTION—
2.—Repeal and substitution.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Repeal and substitution.

1. Section 34 of Chapter 143 of the Consolidated Statutes (Third Series) as amended by 8-9 Geo. V., Cap. 8 (1918) is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

34. After such proclamation shall have been issued as aforesaid, no new petition on the same subject shall be presented from such area until the expiration of three years from the date of such proclamation; and if no such petition be presented within three months after the expiration of such proclamation, the operation of the proclamation with reference to any such area shall be considered as agreed to by the electors, and shall continue without the necessity for the issue of a new proclamation for another three years from the expiry thereof, and so on in like manner shall be continued in operation and effect from period to period unless and until a petition signed and certified as aforesaid, praying that the proclamation prohibiting the keeping of dogs within the said area be revoked, shall be presented in manner aforesaid within three months after the expiration of one of such yearly periods, in which case the Governor-in-Council shall issue a proclamation revoking the previous proclamation prohibiting the keeping of dogs in such area until such time as a new petition on the same subject shall have been lawfully presented from such area under the provisions of this Chapter.

2. The Act 8-9 Geo. V. Cap. 8 (1918) entitled An Act Repeal. further to amend Chapter 143 of the Consolidated Statutes of Newfoundland (Second Series) entitled "Of the Keeping of Dogs" is hereby repealed.

- 14.—Act to come into effect
November 1st, 1928.
- 15.—Short Title.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convoked, as follows:—

Repeal and
substitution.

1. Section five of The Law Society Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

BENCHERS

Benchers of the Law Society ex
officio.

The Attorney General, the Registrar of the Supreme Court, and all members of the Bar of Newfoundland who have at any time held the office of Attorney General of Newfoundland, and any retired Judge of the Supreme Court shall respectively, (provided such ex-Attorney General or retired Judge shall be actually residing in Newfoundland), ex officio, be Benchers of the Society.

Number of Benchers.

2. Section 6 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

The Benchers of the Law Society, exclusive of ex officio members, shall be eight in number, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

3. Section 7 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Date of Election of Benchers.

The election of the Benchers shall be held annually in the month of January—at the General Annual Meeting of the Society.

4. Section 8 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting
votes.

Each member of the Bar, not hereinafter declared ineligible as an elector may vote.

5. Section 9 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting the conduct of the Election.

The election shall be conducted as follows, subject to such rules and regulations as may be made by virtue of Section 21.

(1) Due notice having been given to all members of the Bar to attend at the place in St. John's appointed for holding the election, the Secretary shall deliver to each elector present, eligible to vote, a voting paper which shall contain a list of:—

(a) The names of the ex officio Benchers.

(b) The names of the Benchers then holding office, not being ex officio Benchers, and not retiring.

(c) The names of all members of the Bar qualified for election or re-election.

(2) The elector then shall vote by writing the names of a number of those members qualified for election or re-election sufficient to fill the vacancies existing under Section 6 of this Act, and folding up the voting paper, place it in the Ballot-box in the presence of the Secretary.

- (3) Any elector qualified to vote, and not being present, may vote by proxy, by authorizing some qualified elector to mark his voting paper, which the Secretary shall deliver to the said proxy upon due written authority so to do, and the same rules shall apply to proxies as to members present.

Respecting
terms of service of Benchers.

6. Section 10 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

The Benchers already elected shall hold office until the General Annual Meeting in 1929, and shall then retire. At the said General Annual Meeting eight Benchers shall be elected. Their terms of service shall be as follows:—Two Benchers, four years; two Benchers, three years; two Benchers, two years; and two Benchers, one year.

The terms of service of each Bencher shall be determined by lot, immediately after the said General Annual Meeting and entered in the Minute Book of the Secretary. At each of the succeeding General Annual Meetings of the Society the places of the two retiring Benchers shall be filled by election, and those so elected shall serve for the four years next ensuing.

Eligibility to be Benchers.

7. Section 16 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

No person shall be eligible as a Bencher at any election who shall not have completed eight years at the Bar or who is not qualified to vote at the election,

8. Section 19 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting
ballot papers.

- (a) In the event of an elector writing more names on his ballot paper than the number requisite to fill the vacancies only the number of names first set out and sufficient to fill such vacancies shall be counted. In the event of there being fewer names marked on the ballot paper than the number requisite to fill such vacancies, the ballot paper shall be null and void.

9. Section 28 of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting
vacancies or deficiency in the number of Benchers.

- (b) In case of the failure in any instance to elect the requisite number of duly qualified Benchers, according to the provisions of this Chapter, or in case of any vacancy caused by the death or resignation of any Bencher, or by any other cause, then it shall be the duty of the remaining Benchers with all convenient speed, at a meeting of the Benchers to be specially called for the purpose and to be held to supply the deficiency in the number of Benchers failed to be elected as aforesaid, or caused by any of the means aforesaid, to fill such vacancy by appointing to such vacant place or places, as the same may occur, any person or persons duly qualified under the provisions of this Chapter to be elected as a Bencher or Benchers; and the person or persons so elected shall hold office for the residue of the period for which the Bencher whom he replaces was elected.

10. Section 2 of "The Law Society (Amendment) Act, 1921," is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting persons eligible to be admitted to practice at the Bar.

Subject to any rules, regulations or bye-laws, made by the Benchers, any person who has been enrolled as a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and no others may be admitted to practice at the Bar in His Majesty's Court in Newfoundland."

11. Section 3 of "The Law Society (Amendment) Act, 1921." is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:—

Respecting persons eligible to be admitted as Solicitors.

Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and to any rules and regulations made by the Benchers of the Society, the following persons and no other may be admitted and enrolled as Solicitors.

- (a) Any person who has been bound by contract in writing to a practising Solicitor in Newfoundland, to serve and has served him as his clerk for five years.
- (b) Any person who has been bound by contract in writing to a practising Solicitor in Newfoundland to serve, and has served him as his Clerk for four years, and who, prior to his having entered into such contract, has passed the examination at the end of the second year's course of the Memorial University College, St. John's, the Intermediate Examinations in Arts Science or Law of London University or of any University of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, The Irish Free State or of any Dominion, Colonial or Foreign University, having power to grant degrees, which the Benchers may consider equivalent to the said Intermediate Examination.
- (c) Any person who has been bound by contract in writing to a practising Solicitor in Newfoundland, to serve, and has served him as Clerk for three years, and who, prior to his having entered into such contract has actually taken and had conferred upon him the degree of Bachelor, Master or Doctor in Arts, Law or Science (not being an honorary degree) in any of the Universities or Colleges mentioned in sub-section (b) of this Section.

- (d) Any person who has been duly called to practice at the Bar of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts in England.
- (e) Any person who has been duly called to the Bar of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Irish Free State or in any of His Majesty's Dominions, Colonies or Provinces in which the same privilege is extended to Barristers from this Colony.
- (f) Any person who has been duly and lawfully sworn, admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor of His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England.
- (g) Any Attorney or Solicitor of any of His Majesty's Superior Courts of Law or Equity in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Irish Free State or in any of His Majesty's Dominions, Colonies or Provinces where the same privileges are extended to Solicitors of the Supreme Court of this Colony.
- (h) When any of the persons referred to in sub-section (a), (b) or (c) of this Section has, prior or subsequent to his having entered into such contract attended any term or terms at a recognized Law School, with the approval and consent of the Benchers, and has passed terminal examinations for such term or terms, the time during which he shall have actually attended at such Law School shall, for the purpose of this section, be computed as if it had been passed in actual service under his articles of clerkship.

- (i) If any person who has been bound by contract in writing for a term of five years has, during his term of service, taken and had conferred upon him the degree of Bachelor or Doctor of Laws in any of the Universities mentioned in sub-section (b) of this Section, his period of service under such contract shall be reduced by one year.

Repeal.

12. The Law Society (Amendment) Act, 1922, is hereby repealed.

Respecting
qualifications
of Articled Clerks, &c.

13. Section 56 of The Law Society Act is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

Subject to any rules, regulations and bye-laws, made by the Benchers the following enactments are made with respect to the qualifications of Articled Clerks and Candidates for admission as Solicitors.

- (a) Before entering upon his articles, the Candidate shall produce at Convocation a certificate of having passed the Senior Matriculation Examination of the Council of Higher Education or a Certificate of having passed the examination at the end of the first year's course of the Memorial University College, St. John's, or a Certificate which would qualify him to enter on articles according to the regulations of the Incorporated Law Society of England, or a Certificate from some Dominion, Colonial or Foreign University, which the Benchers may regard as equivalent to any of the above Certificates.

- (b) No person, being of the class of persons mentioned in sub-section (a) (b) and (c) of Section 11 of this Act shall be admitted or enrolled as a Solicitor unless he shall have passed examinations in the subjects, at the times, and in the manner prescribed by the rules and bye-laws of the Society.
- (c) In case any person prevented by illness or other unavoidable cause from presenting himself for, or fails to pass either of the examinations by this section required, within the times specified in the rules or bye-laws, the Benchers may, in their discretion, permit such persons to pass such examination at another time, but not less than twelve months shall elapse between the Preliminary Examination and the next of such examinations, and not less than six months shall elapse between the last intermediate and the final examinations.
- (d) No Bencher or Examiner shall take part in any examination or vote on any question respecting the service of an Articled Clerk who shall have completed his term of service with such Bencher or Examiner or the partner of such Bencher or Examiner.

14. This Act shall come into force on November 1st, 1928, provided however Articled Clerks and Students at Law admitted prior to the said date shall not be affected by any Amendment in this Act, modifying the conditions and terms of service of Articled Clerks and Students at Law.

15. This Act shall be cited as The Law Society (Amendment) Act, 1928.

Act to come into effect
Nov. 1st, 1928.

MINERS' LICENSES

Miner's License.

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 48 of Chapter 129 of the Consolidated Statutes (3rd Series) entitled "Of Crown Lands, Timber, Mines and Minerals," no person or Company not the holder of a miner's license shall search or prospect for minerals upon any lands in this Colony or its Dependencies, nor have the right to stake any mineral or obtain a license under Section 50 of the said Chapter.

How obtained.

2. Any person or any Company incorporated under the laws of Newfoundland shall be entitled on payment of the prescribed fee to obtain a miner's license.

3. Any person holding a miner's license may stake mineral on behalf of any other person or Company holding a miners' license. <sup>Holder of License may stake for others.</sup>

4. Any person staking any mineral shall place upon the stake in addition to the particulars required by Section 50 the number of his license, and if the mineral is staked by him on behalf of another licensee the name of and number of the license of such other licensee. <sup>Number of License to be placed on stake.</sup>

5. An application under sub-section (2) of Section 50 of the said Chapter may be made either by the licensee placing the discovery stake or by the person or Company, being a licensee, on whose behalf such discovery stake was placed. <sup>Applications under Section 50 (2).</sup>

6. (1) Every miner's license shall be dated on the day of issue thereof, and shall expire at midnight on the 31st day of December then next ensuing. <sup>Tenure of Miner's License, etc.</sup>

(2) The License shall be effectual throughout Newfoundland and its Dependencies and shall not be transferable.

(3) Licenses shall be numbered consecutively in each year and shall be signed by the Minister of Agriculture and Mines or by the Deputy Minister.

(4) A miner's license held by a Company shall not entitle any officer or shareholder thereof to the rights or privileges of a licensee.

(5) No person or Company shall receive or hold more than one miner's license at any one time; provided that on proof of the loss or destruction of the license the Minister may on payment of the prescribed fee issue a duplicate license bearing the same number and letter as the license lost or destroyed, which duplicate shall be marked "substituted license."

(6) Upon the issue of every license the applicant therefor shall pay the sum of Five dollars to the Minister for the use of the Colony.

(7) The Minister shall cause to be kept in the Department of Agriculture and Mines a register of licenses, showing the names, addresses and descriptions of the holders, which shall be open to public inspection.

Temporary License.

7. Any temporary license issued by the Minister during the present year before the passing of this Act shall be deemed to be a valid license issued under this Act.

Revocation of License.

8. The Minister may revoke the license of any licensee who is guilty of a wilful contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of the said Chapter, and a license shall not thereafter be issued to such licensee without the authority of the Governor-in-Council.

Production of License to certain persons.

9. Any licensee travelling outside St. John's shall carry his license with him and shall at all times produce the same upon demand to any fire warden, constable, official of the Department of Agriculture and Mines or Magistrate, or to any other person from time to time authorized in writing by the Minister to demand the same, and shall on such production furnish any information asked for as to the direction in which he proposes to travel or the regions which he proposes to enter.

Penalty for contravention of Forest Fires Act.

10. If any holder of a miner's license shall be found guilty of any contravention of the provisions of any Act relating to the prevention of forest fires, the Court or Magistrate convicting him shall require the delivery up of his license and shall cancel the same and forward it to the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, with a short report of the case, and thereafter no new license shall be issued to such person save by order of the Governor-in-Council.

11. Any person prospecting for minerals without Penalty, being the holder of a miner's license shall be subject to a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars to be recovered summarily before any Stipendiary Magistrate. One half of any penalty so imposed shall go to the prosecutor and one half to the Minister of Finance for the use of the Colony.

SIZE AND SHAPE OF LOCATIONS

12. Sub-section (2) of Section 50 of the said Chapter is hereby amended by striking out the words from and including the words "It shall be in the form of a parallelogram" to the end of the section, and substituting the following words: "It shall be in form a square, the sides of which shall be half a mile long; two of such sides shall be parallel to the base line passing through the point marked by the discovery stake, which said line may be on the general bearing of the vein, lode or deposit of mineral, which shall be defined by the applicant in the application for such location, or on such other bearing as may be so defined therein, and each of such sides shall be distant from the said discovery stake not more than one quarter of a mile."

13. Section 51 of the said Chapter is hereby amended by striking out the word "parallelogram" and substituting the word "square," and by striking out the words "shall be of the dimensions of one mile in length by half a mile in breadth, shall have their greatest length parallel to the greatest length of the discovery location," and substituting the words: "shall have their sides parallel to the sides of the discovery location."

14. Section 52 of the said Chapter is hereby amended by striking out the words "in parallelograms, each measuring one mile by half a mile, the bearings of the greater sides of which shall be parallel to the base line of the said discovery location, and the lesser side at right angles thereto," and substituting the words, "in squares each measuring one-half mile square, the sides of which shall be parallel to the sides of the discovery location," and by striking out the word "parallelogram" and substituting the word "square."

- (2) The said Section is further amended by adding as sub-section (3) the following:
- (3) Not more than nineteen locations shall be laid off under sub-section (1) hereof in conjunction with any one discovery location.

SURVEYS AND ALTERATION OF LEASES

Amendment
respecting surveys, &c.

15. Section 54 of the said Chapter is hereby amended by adding to Sub-Section (3) the following words: "Upon the filing of such survey the lease shall issue"; and by adding the following as Sub-Sections (4), (5) and (6).

- (4) Where any person is the holder of two or more contiguous locations, the survey required under Sub-Section (3) hereof shall be a survey of the external boundaries of the area so held, and it shall not be necessary to survey the internal lines dividing the several locations.
- (5) Any person holding under lease two or more contiguous locations may at any time abandon any one or more of the same to the Crown, provided all rents and other payments due to the Crown shall have been paid and all conditions and obligations on the lessee performed; and upon the surrender of such lease the Minister shall issue a new lease of the same date as the original lease covering the reduced area and providing for a proportionate reduction of rental; provided that before the issue of such new lease the applicant shall, if such survey have not been already filed, make and file a survey and diagram delimiting the locations to be removed from his lease.

- (6) If a lease of surface land under Section 61 of the said Chapter be applied for, the applicant shall be required to survey such internal lines as may be necessary to fix the boundaries of the location or locations in respect of which such surface lease is applied for.

SUB-DIVISION OF EXISTING LOCATIONS

16. Every location of three hundred and twenty acres at the second day of May 1928 already laid off under Section 52 and not under license or lease shall forthwith be divided by the Minister into two locations of one hundred and sixty acres each by a line drawn at right angles to the longer sides and half-way between the shorter sides thereof; and all locations of three hundred and twenty acres each now held under license or lease shall if such licenses or leases lapse be divided in like manner before any new licenses or leases shall be issued covering the same. To avoid disturbance of the original numbering such new locations shall bear the numbers of the original locations out of which they were formed with the prefix A or B; thus location Number 27 shall be divided into Locations 27A and 27B. Each such new location shall be a single location for all the purposes of this Act and of the said Chapter.

FEE SIMPLE GRANTS

Amendment
respecting
Fee Simple Grants.

17. Section 58 is hereby amended by striking out subsection (3) and substituting the following:

- (3) Any person holding a mining location under a license or lease shall be entitled to a grant in fee simple who shall prove that he has bona fide expended during the first five years of his holding the sum of Six Thousand Dollars in surface and subterranean mining by the excavation of not less than ten thousand cubic feet of rock or earth on a mining location of one hundred and sixty acres, or, in the case of a license or lease issued before the passing of this amendment, on a mining location of three hundred and twenty acres, or who shall have carried out drilling operations upon the property to the required value on the basis of Five Dollars per lineal foot of drilling, or who shall have carried out geophysical exploration on the property at a bona fide cost proved to the satisfaction of the Minister to be equal to the required value; or who shall prove that he has made the required expenditure by a combination of all or any of these methods; provided that if any such lessee was the holder of a mining lease under any previous Act under which he would have become entitled to a grant in fee simple upon the expenditure of certain money then in estimating the amount to be expended under this Section it shall be lawful to take into account any moneys properly spent in mining as aforesaid under the provisions of the said former lease so as to entitle him to a grant in fee simple.

And Sub-Section (4) is hereby amended by adding the following words:

Where any person is the holder of two or more contiguous or nearly contiguous submarine locations and has made any expenditure upon tunnelling or other works which in the opinion of the Minister upon the report of the Government Engineer are adapted or suitable for exploring or developing all or any of such contiguous or nearly contiguous location the expenditure upon such works may with the permission of the Governor-in-Council be applied towards the obtaining of a grant in fee simple of all of the said locations, or such of them as the holder may select.

And is further amended by adding the following Sub-Section :—

- (5) Where any person is the holder of a number of contiguous locations on land and shall prove to the Minister that he has expended any given sum upon the carrying out of a search for minerals over the area comprised in such location by any recognized geophysical method or by drilling. Such expenditure may be attributed for the purpose of obtaining fee simple grants to any one or more of the said contiguous locations which the said holder may select.

DEFINITION OF GEOPHYSICAL EXPLORATION

18. Geophysical exploration for the purposes of this Act shall mean any method of exploration whereby the presence or probable presence of ore is ascertained by the use of electrical, gravitational, vibrational or other means involving the detection of physical reactions by means of instruments used on or near the surface, as opposed to methods involving excavation or drilling.

Meaning of Geophysical
exploration.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

19. Nothing herein shall be held to prejudice or diminish the rights of the holder of any license or lease held before the passing of this Act.

Reservation
of rights.

Port and Harbour of
St. John's.

1. For the purposes of this Act the Port and Harbour of St. John's shall comprise the Harbour including the Narrows and extending eastward to a line drawn from headland to headland, and extending westward above the Long Bridge to a line drawn North and South at the western end of the Gas Works, and shall include the shores to high water mark. In this Act "Harbour" means the Harbour of St. John's; "Commission" means the St. John's Harbour and Pilotage Commission.

Interpretation.

St. John's
Harbour and Pilotage
Commission.

2. (1) There shall be a Commission of three persons to be known as the St. John's Harbour and Pilotage Commission. The said Commission shall consist of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, ex officio, who shall be chairman of the Commission, and two persons of St. John's, connected with trade and shipping, to be appointed by the Governor-in-Council.

Harbour
Master

(2) The Governor-in-Council shall appoint a Harbour Master for the Port of St. John's, who shall hold office during pleasure. The Harbour Master shall act as the Secretary and as Chief Executive Officer of the Commission.

- (3) The Chairman and other members of the Commission shall be paid the sum of Five Hundred Dollars a year, which shall be divided among them at the end of each year in proportion to the number of meetings of the Commission attended by each of them respectively.

- (4) Two Commissioners shall be a quorum. Quorum.

- (5) In the absence or illness of the Chairman one of the other Commissioners may act as Chairman.

- (6) The Commission may appoint such clerks or servants as they may deem necessary, and pay them out of the revenue of the Commission.

3. The Commission shall have the management and control of the Harbour of St. John's and shall have jurisdiction within the limits of the area defined herein.

4. Whenever it shall be considered necessary for purposes of extending and improving the Harbour or the accommodations thereof the Governor-in-Council may, upon the recommendation of the Commission, acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise any lands and any erections thereon, in, adjoining or adjacent to the Harbour.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any regulations which may be made thereunder, and to such particular directions and instructions as the Commissioners may from time to time give or cause to be given, the duties of the Harbor Master shall include the following, and he shall have authority:—

- (a) to control and regulate the movements, anchorage and removal of ships, and navigation generally;

- (b) to control and regulate the fairway ;
- (c) to prevent and remove obstructions and hindrances to navigation ;
- (d) to prevent injury to and encroachments and encumbrances on the Harbour ;
- (e) to control lights and beacons, buoys and other aids of navigation, in or appurtenant to the Harbour (except such as are maintained and controlled by the Department of Marine and Fisheries) ;
- (f) to control pilots and pilotage in the Port of St. John's ;
- (g) and generally to do all things necessary for the effectual execution and observance of the provisions of this Act, and any regulations which may be made thereunder.

Powers of

Harbour Master

6. All vessels in the Harbour of St. John's shall be under the control of the Harbour Master, as regards their position, mooring, anchoring, fastening or removal, or the space or other accommodations the master or person in charge thereof may require and no person on board or in charge of any vessel in the said Harbour or the Owner or Agent thereof, shall disregard or disobey, the orders of the Harbour Master in such respects, and in the event of the refusal or neglect of any person on board of, or in charge of any vessel, or the Owner or Agent thereof, to obey the orders of the Harbour Master to move the vessel or mooring, or if no person be in charge of such vessel, the Harbour Master may take possession of and move the vessel or mooring and may use any reasonable means and force for the purpose, and may moor, anchor, or make fast the vessel at such other place as he thinks fit and at the expense and risk of such vessel and her Owners; and such remedy shall be in addition to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Provided that nothing in this Section shall prevent any person from keeping a vessel at his own pier or wharf, provided said vessel does not by reason of her length overlap or obstruct adjoining piers, wharves or waterways.

7. The Harbour Master shall direct—

Harbour Master
shall give directions as to
fairway, &c.

- (a) that the fairway of the Narrows and entrance of the Harbour be kept clear for the safe ingress or egress of vessels;
- (b) that the approach to the wharves be kept clear for mail and passenger steamers when necessary;
- (c) that the usual or other anchoring ground for ships of war be kept clear on their arrival and during their stay in port;
- (d) that sufficient space and anchoring ground be available for any large ship entering or staying in port;
- (e) that the entrance and approach from the Harbour to the public coves in St. Johns' shall be kept clear and unobstructed so that at all times there may be safe ingress and egress thereto and therefrom;
- (f) that the anchoring ground of any vessel be changed if such anchorage is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act or any regulation thereunder.

And in aid of any such direction and in addition to any other remedy the Harbour Master may exercise the powers conferred in and by Section 6 of this Act.

Power to remove vessels, &c.

8. If in the opinion of the Harbour Master any vessel anchored in the Harbour is likely to sink or is abandoned or likely to become an obstruction to navigation, the Harbor Master may, after giving notice to the Owner or Agent of such vessel, or without notice if there is no known Owner or Agent in St. John's, take charge of and remove such vessel, and may deal with and dispose of such vessel in such manner as the Commission shall think necessary or proper, and all expenses incurred shall be borne by the vessel and her owners, and may be recovered with costs in an action in the name of the Commission.

Respecting vessels sinking in Harbour.

9. If any vessel shall sink in the Harbour, the owner of such vessel shall upon the order in writing of the Harbour Master, immediately raise, remove, or destroy such vessel; and in case such Owner shall fail to comply with such order within one month, the Commission may raise, remove, or destroy such vessel; and the vessel and the Owners thereof shall be liable for the whole cost of such raising, removal, or destruction, which may be recovered in an action at the suit of the Commission in the Supreme Court.

Mooring of vessels.

10. No vessel shall be moored or anchored in such a manner or situation as to be, or in the opinion of the Harbour Master likely to be unsafe or dangerous to any other vessel.

Anchoring near H.M.S. prohibited.

11. No vessel shall anchor alongside the moorings of His Majesty's ships except in case of extreme necessity and then only temporarily.

Respecting hawsters while anchored.

12. Every vessel anchoring in the Harbour of St. John's shall leave a sufficient fairway for the movement of other vessels, both North and South of such vessel, and no vessel shall when anchored in the stream have any tow line or hawser extending, or be in any way made fast or connected to any wharf, or the shore, or any other vessel except for the purpose of hauling in or out.

13. No vessel shall have her main spanker or jibboom rigged out except at the risk of such vessel and her Owners, and the Harbour Master may order any such vessel to have her spanker or jibboom rigged in. Respecting jibboom of vessels.

14. No persons shall throw or deposit any ballast, stone, sand, gravel, earth or rubbish of any kind into the Harbour, nor on the shores thereof below high water mark. Prohibition against ballast being thrown in Harbour.

15. In case of any dispute arising relative to the mooring, hauling or removing of vessels in the harbour, the Harbour Master may give directions in respect to the same as the circumstances of the case may demand, and all persons having the charge or command of such vessels or on board the same shall comply with the directions of the Harbour Master, and every neglect or refusal so to do shall be an offence against this Act. Failure to observe Harbour Master's directions.

16. If any person—

Respecting certain offences.

(a) Shall abandon, burn or break up any vessel in the Harbour of St. John's without the consent in writing of the Harbour Master, or

(b) shall leave any vessel anchored in the stream without some person in charge of same by day and by night, or without having a bright light burning at least six feet above the upper deck from sunset to sunrise unless specially exempted by the Commission; or

- (c) shall load on board or discharge from any vessel, coals, ballast, stone, sand, gravel, earth or similar articles, without having a sufficient canvas apron or tarpaulin or other sufficient appliances so as to prevent any portion of such articles from falling into the Harbour; or
- (d) shall throw overboard from any vessel any ballast, stone, sand, gravel, earth or rubbish of any kind into the Harbour or at or near the entrance thereof (except with the consent of the Harbour Master, and in places, if any, set apart for that purpose by the Commission); such person, and the Owners, Master or Agent of such vessel shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

EXPLOSIVES

Harbour Master to be notified of explosives on board vessels. Directions respecting same.

- 17. (1) The Master of any vessel in the Harbour of St. John's having explosives or any explosive substances on board, except such as are kept for the necessary use of the vessel, shall immediately notify the Harbour Master of the nature, quality and quantity of such explosives.
- (2) The Harbour Master may direct where any vessel loaded in whole or in part with explosives or inflammable or dangerous goods shall anchor or be moored, and may order the removal of such vessel from any part of the Harbour to any other part.
- (3) Every ship, except warships and ships armed as provided in sub-section (7) hereof, entering the Port of St. John's, having on board any gunpowder or other explosives, or loading or discharging any gunpowder or other explosives, shall in the day-time fly a red flag at or near the mast head, and shall by night display a red light at least twenty feet above the top deck.

- (4) No keg, package or other receptacle containing any explosives or explosive substances—
  - (a) shall be brought to or be placed upon any wharf for shipment unless and until the vessel on which the same is to be shipped is ready to receive the same immediately on board; or
  - (b) shall be allowed to be in an open boat, or upon the deck of any vessel, or upon any wharf, or in any vehicle within the harbour, except the same be covered and protected by tarpaulins or other sufficient coverings.
- (5) The Harbour Master shall have power to decide whether any particular goods are explosive, inflammable or dangerous, subject to appeal to the Commission.
- (6) Every Officer of the Customs to whose notice it shall come from any manifest or otherwise that any ship has on board explosives or inflammable dangerous substances shall forthwith and as promptly as possible notify the Harbour Master of the fact.
- (7) The provisions of this Section shall not apply to warships or to merchant ships which may be armed for self-defence or otherwise, under arrangements made by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

OF ENCROACHMENTS

Offences
respecting encroachments.

18. (1) If any person shall, without the consent in writing of the Commission

- (a) encroach upon, take possession of, or use any part or portion of the public property; or of any lands or beaches below high water mark in the Harbour; or
- (b) erect, build, put or place, any building, store, wharf, pier, breastwork, block, stage, flake, or other erection in the Harbour; or
- (c) extend, widen, or enlarge any premises, building, store, wharf, pier, breastwork, block, stage, flake, or other erection whether now existing, or which may be hereafter built or erected in the Harbour;

Such person and his employer, and the Owner or Agent of any such erection or premises aforesaid shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

- (2) In any such case aforesaid the Commission may notify or direct such person and his employer or such Owner or Agent, or any of them, to discontinue, take down, or remove any such encroachment, building or erection aforesaid, and in case of refusal or neglect to obey such notification or direction, the Commissioners and others by their authority may enter upon any lands or premises in, adjoining or adjacent to the Harbour, who may take down, dismantle or remove any such encroachment, building or erection, or any part or parts thereof, and may dispose of the same as the Commission shall think fit, and at the risk, cost and charges of such person and his employers, or such Owner or Agent, which cost and charges may be recovered by action in the name of the Commission; and such remedy shall be in addition to the penalty hereinafter provided.

19. The Commissioners, Harbour Master and others by <sup>Harbour Master</sup> their or his authority shall be at liberty to enter upon, pass <sup>to have right</sup> and repass at all reasonable times in, over or upon any <sup>of entry on</sup> any premises, lands, buildigs or premises, in, adjoining, or adjacent to the Harbour for the purpose of viewing or inspecting any erection whatever in the Harbour, or of ascertaining whether or not any trespass or encroachment whatsoever has been made, or is being made or proceeded with, or for any purpose which he shall consider necessary in the carrying out and enforcing any of the provisions of this Act, or of any regulations which may be made thereunder.

OF PILOTAGE

20. There shall be for the port of St. John's, such <sup>Respecting</sup> number of <sup>number of</sup> pilots as the Commission may consider neces- <sup>Pilots. Ex-</sup> sary, who shall be licensed by the Commissioners. <sup>aminations, &c.</sup>

- (1) Any person desirous of applying for examination as a pilot shall make application to the Commissioners for a nomination for examination as a pilot, and, on such nomination being granted, he shall be entitled to be examined.
- (2) All candidates nominated for examination as pilots shall be examined before the Chief Examiner of Masters and Mates, under regulations to be made by the Governor-in-Council, and he shall certify the result of such examination to the Commissioners.

22. Every certificate granted to a licensed pilot shall be numbered and registered in a book kept for that purpose, shall be in force for one year, and shall be annually renewed. Pilots shall pay five dollars for every such certificate and shall pay five dollars annually for renewal thereof; and in case of loss or defacing the same, not above two dollars for a new certificate. No licensed pilot shall lend or transfer his certificate under a penalty of losing his certificate and shall not be again licensed.

Fee for certificate.

23. The Commission may establish bye-laws for the further regulation of pilots and for extra remuneration in cases of an extraordinary nature and for the adjustment and decision of questions arising between masters of vessels and pilots and others respecting pilotage, and also respecting the salvage of anchors and cables, and may annex penalties for enforcing the same; but no bye-laws shall be in force until approved by the Governor-in-Council.

Power to make bye-laws, &c.

24. Subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the Commission may make regulations for the management, control and operation of the pilot cutter and for the government of licensed pilots, and for ensuring their sobriety and good conduct and constant attendance to and effectual performance of their duty on board and on shore.

Power to make Regulations.

25. Subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the Commission may make rules for punishing any breach of their regulations by the withdrawal or suspension of the license or certificate of the pilot guilty of such breach, or by the infliction of penalties upon pilots; so, however, that every such penalty be capable of reduction at the discretion of the Commission.

Respecting
rules for breach of regulations.

26. The rates of pilotage payable by vessels entering the Port of St. John's shall be in accordance with the sub-

Rates of Pilotage.

joined scale of rates, when such vessels are hailed, spoken or boarded by a licensed pilot outside Fort Amherst. No steam or sailing vessel returning to the said port, through stress of weather, shall be compelled to take a pilot on her said return to the said port; provided that such steam or sailing vessel shall not have gone from such port during the whole space of three days. Nor shall any steam or sailing vessel which shall have proceeded from the port of St. John's to any other port in this Colony on the voyage be compelled to take a pilot on her said return to the said port of St. John's, nor on her second departure therefrom; provided she shall not have been gone from the said port of St. John's for three days.

SCALE OF RATES

On vessels, according to their net register measurement, under eighty tons, six dollars and seventy-five cents.

From eighty to one hundred tons, eight dollars and seventy cents.

From one hundred to one hundred and twenty tons, nine dollars and thirty-five cents

From one hundred and twenty to one hundred and sixty tons, ten dollars.

From one hundred and sixty to two hundred tons, ten dollars and seventy cents.

From two hundred to two hundred and forty tons, eleven dollars and seventy cents.

From two hundred and forty to two hundred and eighty tons, fifteen dollars.

From two hundred and eighty to three hundred tons, sixteen dollars.

From three hundred to three hundred and fifty tons, nineteen dollars.

From three hundred and fifty to four hundred tons, twenty-two dollars.

From four hundred to five hundred tons, twenty-five dollars.

From five hundred to six hundred tons, thirty-one dollars.

From six hundred to seven hundred tons, thirty-five dollars.

From seven hundred to eight hundred tons, forty dollars.

Over that size, for every one hundred tons or part of one hundred tons additional, two dollars; and on no sailing vessel is the pilotage to exceed forty dollars, and on no steamer to exceed eighty dollars at any one time.

Vessels employed in the fisheries of the Colony shall be exempt, except on foreign voyages.

Coastal steamers owned and registered in this Colony shall also be exempt.

Subsidized mail steamers in connection with the Colony shall pay on their horse power, at the rate of eight cents for each horse power.

All coasting vessels, which may take pilots, to pay one-half of the above rates of pilotage, in proportion to their tonnage.

The above scale of pilotage shall be payable on the registered net tonnage of all such vessels, as ascertained before going out of the harbour.

The pilotage charge for moving a vessel within the harbour shall be ten dollars, provided however that it shall not be compulsory for any vessel to take a pilot when moving in the Harbour.

Respecting
ships subject to Pilotage rates.

27. Every vessel and steamer obliged to take or pay a pilot shall show either her house flag, Board of Trade signal or national flag before entering the Narrows, and in case any vessel or steamer shall enter the Narrows, without a pilot, and without having shown such house flag, Board of Trade signal or national flag, such vessel or steamer shall be subject to the usual pilotage rates.

Sailing vessels
to pay Pilotage once.

28. No sailing vessel owned or registered in this Colony shall be compelled to pay pilotage more than once within a period of thirty days.

Taking Pilots
to sea. Penalty.

29. No licensed pilot shall be taken to sea against his will, under a penalty of two hundred dollars on the master of the vessel, except when through stress of weather the same is unavoidable, in which case he shall be entitled to receive from the Master or Owner of the vessel payment at the rate of twenty-five dollars a month for all the time lost, besides the usual meat, drink, and a passage home from the first port the ship shall enter where the same can be obtained.

Penalty.

30. Any person taking charge of any vessel as pilot and not holding a valid Certificate, shall give up the guidance of the said vessel to the first pilot being the holder of such certificate who shall board such vessel to the eastward of Small Point, under a penalty of Fifty dollars.

Vessels obliged to take Pilot.

31. All ships and vessels shall be obliged to take or pay a pilot, except His Majesty's ships, vessels belonging to a Royal Yacht Club, coasting vessels and vessels which have not been boarded, hailed or spoken until after they have entered the Narrows; and no vessel shall be deemed to be a coasting vessel and exempt from the liability of taking a pilot unless such vessel shall have been usually employed as a bona fide coaster.

32. Nothing herein contained shall deprive any person who may act as a pilot in the absence of licensed pilots, from receiving payment for his services, according to the said table of rates, or to relieve any licensed or other pilot from his responsibility to answer for the amount of any loss sustained through his improper conduct in a civil action at the suit of the party injured.

Respecting persons acting as Pilots.

33. Any questions or disputes arising between pilots, masters of vessels and others, respecting pilotage or for any extra remuneration in cases of an extraordinary nature, and all other questions and disputes between them, respecting salvage or otherwise, shall be submitted to the Commission to be adjusted and decided by them, and the judgment of the Commission or a majority of them respecting all such questions and disputes in which the subject matter does not exceed the sum of forty dollars, shall be final and binding on all parties; and every licensed pilot who shall act contrary to this regulation, or shall refuse or neglect to appear before the Commission, after twenty-four hours' notice, when his attendance shall be required by them on any occasion, or shall give any unnecessary trouble, annoyance or detention to masters of vessels, shall for every offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Dollars, and also to suspension or dismissal at the discretion of the Commission.

Disputes to be adjusted by the Commission.

34. Whenever the amount of any judgment given by the said Commission shall exceed forty dollars, any party feeling himself aggrieved may appeal from the judgment of such Commission to the Supreme Court, upon giving sufficient security to prosecute such appeal within a reasonable time and to abide by and to perform such judgment or order as may be made thereon.

Appeals from decision of Commission.

Pilot's Fund.

35. The Pilots' Fund, so called, now accrued or hereafter accruing, shall be invested or deposited in the name of the Commission, subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council, and no portion of such fund shall be appropriated except by resolution of the Commission, approved by the Governor-in-Council.

- (1) Every licensed pilot shall annually pay to the Commission the sum of Fifty dollars by way of contribution to the Pilots' Fund, and in default of payment of such contribution, or any part thereof, the same may be recovered in a summary manner before a Stipendiary Magistrate, in an action in the name of the Commission.

Commission to make returns to Governor-in-Council.

36. The Commission shall, before the thirty-first day of January in each year, make a return to the Governor-in-Council, for the information of the Legislature, of the amount and conditions of the Pilots' Fund for the preceding year, and of any special matters which they may consider necessary, or which the Governor-in-Council may require.

Respecting the making of regulations.

37. Subject to the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the Commission may make regulations for the relief of superannuated or infirm licensed pilots, out of the Pilots' Fund or otherwise, or of their wives, widows or children, and may determine what persons from among the licensed pilots, their wives, widows or children are and are not respectively entitled to participate in the benefits of existing or future funds, and the terms and conditions upon which, if entitled, they are to be so entitled. No superannuated or infirm licensed pilot, so relieved shall receive more than two hundred dollars per annum out of the Pilots' Fund.

Validity of bye-laws.

38. Every bye-law made by the Commission in the exercise of their powers, if and when confirmed by order of the Governor-in-Council and published as hereafter mentioned, shall be valid and effectual; and every breach thereof shall be deemed an offence against this Chapter.

39. Every bye-law made by the Commission and confirmed by the Governor-in-Council shall be published in the Newfoundland Gazette, and a copy thereof printed in the Newfoundland Gazette shall be prima facie evidence of the original and of the contents thereof and of its having been confirmed by order of the Governor-in-Council.

Bye-laws to be published in Gazette.

40. In addition to the amounts payable under the preceding sections of this Chapter for pilotage, the Commission shall collect a sum equal to ten per cent. of the present rate on all vessels entering or leaving the port of St. John's, which said amount, together with all moneys received as fees for licenses and certificates and the amount of any penalties imposed and recovered under the provisions of this part of the Act, shall be held by the Commissioners in such manner as they shall consider desirable for the maintenance of the pilot boat and the general expense of the pilot service.

Respecting Funds.

41. All pilotage dues shall be paid to the Secretary of the Commission, who shall pay the same to the pilots entitled thereto, after first deducting the amount provided in Section 40 hereof, for the upkeep of the pilot boat and the maintenance of the service, and any sum in which such pilots may respectively be indebted for contributions to the Pilots' Fund under Section 35 (1) hereof.

Pilotage Dues to be paid to Secretary. &c.

42. The following amounts, as harbour dues, shall be paid by vessels arriving at the port of St. John's at the time of their being entered at the Custom House, except ships of war and vessels engaged in the coasting trade or fishing, namely:

Harbour Dues.

Every vessel of sixty tons and upwards, and not more than one hundred tons—Two dollars.

Every vessel of more than one hundred tons and not more than two hundred tons—Three dollars.

Every vessel of more than two hundred tons and not more than three hundred tons—Four dollars.

Every vessel of more than three hundred tons and not more than four hundred tons—Five dollars.

Every vessel of more than four hundred tons—Six dollars.

Provided that no vessel shall be compelled to pay harbour dues more than once in every half year, namely once between the first day of January and the thirtieth day of June, inclusive.

Half Harbour
Dues payable in certain cases.

43. Any vessel arriving in the port of St. John's for coal, food or supplies or for repairs, and not bringing cargo for delivery in this Colony, and not taking from this Colony any cargo which such vessel did not bring into this Colony, shall pay one-half the harbour dues provided by the preceding section; and any vessel arriving in said port for the purpose only of landing any sick person or the body of a person who has died shall pay no harbour dues.

Disposition of Harbour Dues.
Audit of Accounts.

44. (1) All harbour dues paid to the Department of Customs in respect of vessels arriving at the port of St. John's shall be paid over weekly to the Commission and the said Department shall furnish the Commission with a detailed statement of each amount so paid.

(2) All moneys received by the Commission shall be deposited in bank to an account in the name of the Commission, and the Commission is hereby authorized to draw cheques upon said account from time to time for the purpose of paying salaries and remuneration as fixed by the Governor-in-Council and other expenses of the Commission and of defraying the proper expenses necessarily incurred in the exercise, carrying out or enforcing of the provisions of this Act, or any regulations which may be made thereunder.

- (3) The Commission shall render to the Minister of Finance and Customs a detailed annual account made up to the 31st day of December in each year of all moneys so deposited, and of all moneys received or paid out by the Commission, and of all amounts owing by or in respect of any vessel or any wharf, building or erection or the owner thereof respectively for expenses incurred.
- (4) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited monthly by the Comptroller and Auditor General.

45. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act, or of any regulations which may be made thereunder, or refusing or neglecting to obey any lawful command, order, or direction of the Commission or Harbour Master made or given under or in of any such regulations aforesaid, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction before a Stipendiary Magistrate to a penalty for each such offence not exceeding one hundred dollars (except in cases where any other penalty is specifically provided) and the costs of conviction, and in default of payment to imprisonment until such payment is made, but not for more than thirty days; subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court in any case where the penalty shall exceed forty dollars.

Respecting violations of Act.

Cost of removing vessels
may be recovered by action.

46. Every removal of any vessel or mooring under this Act shall be at the risk, cost and charges of such vessel and the Owner or Master thereof, and all such costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Commission or Harbour Master and persons employed to aid and assist him in or relating to the moving, removing or making fast any vessel or any mooring may be recovered by action in the name of the Commission in any court of competent jurisdiction with costs of the action.

Governor-in-Council
to make regulations.

47. The Governor-in-Council may make further regulations under this Act as he may consider necessary from time to time and to fix penalties for the breach thereof, which shall have the force of law when published in the Newfoundland Gazette.

Repeal.

48. The following Chapters and Acts are hereby repealed:

(1) Chapter 180 Consolidated Statutes (3rd Series) entitled "Of Pilots and Pilotage for the Port of St. John's."

The Act 8 Geo. V. Cap. 32 entitled "An Act respecting Pilots and Pilotage for the Port of St. John's."

(Passed June 13, 1928).

SECTION—

1.—Amendment of Sec. 9 (b).

SECTION—

2.—Amendment of Section 22.

BE it enacted by the Governor, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Legislative Session convened, as follows:—

Amendment of
Sec. 9 (b).

1. Section 9, sub-section (b) of the Highroads Commission Act, 1925 is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof: “and the Commission may in any event erect fences and keep the same in repair.”

Amendment of
Sec. 22.

2. Section 22 of the Highroads Commission Act, 1925, is hereby amended by adding a sub-section as follows:

- (c) No person shall do or cause or permit to be done, whether on his own property or otherwise, in any place adjacent to a highway anything in the reasonable opinion of the Commission may expose the highway to damage by the action of water, landslip, snow or ice or other natural forces. The Commission may proceed in the Supreme Court for an injunction against any such act or thing and either concurrently or in the alternative for the cost of repair of any damage so caused: Provided however that the Court may refuse such injunction or damages on the ground that the act complained of is a reasonable enjoyment by such person of his own property and that it is for the Commission to protect the highway from the effects thereof.
